Bobbi was a single mother to 2 boys, loved gardening, reading Danielle Steel novels and visiting Ocean City NJ where she would take long walks on the beach. She had a deep love for animals of all kind and would go out of her way to greet them along her walks. Bobbi retired from Dominion (VEPCO) Energy in Northern VA, after 42 years of dedicated service.

She is survived by her brother George Taylor and his wife Betsy, of WA; son John Albers, of FL; son Brian Albers and his wife Lori, along with their 3 children Taylor Albers, Brandon Albers and Luke Albers of Nokesville, VA.
