“ I met Barbara through the McDaniel family. She gave unconditional love and kindness to Geena, Rochelle and Jessica, my nieces - it was beautiful and pure. She believed in them and supported them with pure love and for that I am most grateful that God gave her to my family . I believe she made a difference in the lives of everybody she touched. I'm grateful I had the chance to know her. She was not afraid of hard work, believed in her children and supported all people - she was a giver. She was beautiful inside and out. Even in adversity she had the ability to look for the best in humanity and make the best of her circumstances. I feel blessed that our paths crossed and I had the chance to meet this lovely, generous loving lady. With the kindest regards, Nancy Curtis
