“ Mom, 12 long years have gone by since you left me. I still catch myself wanting to ask you something, but then it hits me Heaven doesn't have a phone. Things have changed so much since you left, our family feel a part. There is only 2 of us left. I miss you more than words. Hug Josh for me & let him know I love him so much. I hold you safe in my heart. I love you.

“ Mom, I did not forget this Feb. 25th, I was having a hard day, Just wanted you to know that these passed 6 years seem like a lifetime, My heart is beyond broken the pain of losing you has been very hard. I miss you & dad & Josh everyday, you taught me so many things in life but the one thing you did not teach me was how to live without you. I miss you & dad coming up every Sunday, miss our talks on the phone daily, sometimes 3, 4 & 5 times a day.. I LOvE & MISS YOU so MUCH !! I keep your in my heart where you will be safe until we meet again, I LOVE YOU !!!

“ My MOTHER was the sweetest, kindest, nicest, God fearing woman you would want to meet. She loved with her whole heart, she loved her husband most of all, then her children & grandchildren & that was a toss up, Being the only girl & the baby of the family, I must be honest ( Thank you Mom ) & say I was spoiled, but in a good way. I am proud of the way I was taught & who I have become thanks again Mom., Now my Dad is with her, & my baby son I am so glad he has them but so sad that I do not have them. I remember riding the bus with her, and our house burnt down so I was staying with a friend of hers that I knew & my mom drove a bus with, so I would ride out with Mrs Joan Hayes to meet my mom & ride with her & every morning at Washington Irving school she would give me the money to go get a cinnamon bun & milk and I remember that was my high light of the morning after seeing my mom. Once I went to Ky to stay with my grandparents first time away from my parents & boy that was hard, but now that they are in Heaven it so hard for me here knowing I will not see them here again.. I never meet anyone who did not like my mother, & that is the truth, Love you mom for being my special angel, Mother, friend. Miss you so very very much

Let me correct this.. She loved God first, then her husband then on with children & grandchildren.

“ Mom, it has been almost 5 years since you left me, my heart has big hole in it that will never heal while we are apart. You always told me God gave me to you because he knew you needed me, but he gave me to you because he knew what kind of heart you had and what a hard head I would be, but as I get older I know why, you showed me how to love & forgive others, to be caring and I find myself getting more like you which I am proud to say if I can be half the woman you are, than I can hold my head high. Thank you for being my mother, my best friend !! I love & miss you so much, til we meet again. Love you and carry you in my heart, Your 1 & only.

“ Barbara was the greatest sister ever. She was the most loving person that I have ever know. Once when I was in a walker and she was babysitting me she sat down a hot iron and I went straight for the iron turning over my walker and I have a scare in my head today from that. Barbara had the same scare from a boil in her head, and when I was growing up she would tell me that she just marked me as hers. She was the greatest big sister a girl could have!

“ I want to express to the family my most heartfelt sympathy for their loss. I feel fortunate to have known Barbara. I remember how she made me feel so welcome unto her home and family and it is with great sadness I write this. Barbara Webb was the kindest person and had the buggest heart if anyone I have ever met. She loved the Lord and it is because of her and Herbert my kids were raised in church. I have many wonderful memories of Barbara and could not have asked for a better grandmother to my kids. May God bless you all as we say goodbye.

“ You were the best Grandma a girl could have .... You loved me so much ... I remember putting your earrings in for you everyday watching tv with you .... You spoiled me at the grocery store when I was little if you would catch me eyeing some goodies you would say go ahead and put in the buggy ..... I loved watching you do secret pal at church...I will never forget the bikes you got us in Florida to ride to school because we had to walk .... I love you and I miss you so much Thank you for everything you did for me , my brothers and sister and I know my mom is very thankful as well ....

“ Barbara was a good friend of my Mother, Madge Williams. Please accept my condolences on her passing. She was a generous, sweet woman who was always a good friend to those around her. This world is a sadder place without her.
