“ Pam, Janet and Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. It was a pleasure to have known your Momma over the years, she was such a delight with her big smile and her southern drawl. She will be greatly missed by so many people and they/we all are better people for knowing her.

A poem that I found many years ago...

The Watcher
by Margaret Widdemer (1884-1978)

*She always leaned to watch for us,
Anxious if we were late,
In winter by the window,
In summer by the gate.*

*And though we mocked her tenderly,
Who had such foolish care,
The long way home would seem more safe
Because she waited there.*

*Her thoughts were all so full of us,
She never could forget!
And so I think that where she is
She must be watching yet.*

*Waiting till we come home to her,
Anxious if we are late,
Watching from Heaven's window,
Leaning on Heaven's gate.*

*All My Love,
Linda Drake-Kosek*
