I hadn't seen Barry in many years but will always remember him as the 1st Rod Stewart fan I ever knew back in the 1970's, the infamous hunting trip involving a chicken, and as Trina's little brother. Very sorry for your loss

We shared a distinctive cousinly bond provided by births timed only hours apart yet recorded on different days. This curious parallelism provided an always-available family member with whom to measure what life could be, and also a marker of familial roles. I admired Barry's gregariousness, an easy-going spirit, and the deep connection with family. Now too suddenly, too soon, our family is smaller, and we are poorer for the loss.
