

Benjamin Martinez Aguilar

July 10, 1959 - March 1, 2024

Our beloved father Benjamin passed away unexpectedly from cardiovascular issues at Prince William Hospital on Friday, March 1st at the age of 64.

Benjamin Martinez Aguilar was born in Los Reyes, Michoacán de Ocampo, Mexico and immigrated to the United States over 45 years ago setting roots in Manassas, VA. He lived his life to the fullest serving God. One of his greatest acts of service was helping others in need. He was well known in the community for his charm and warmth and was a devoted Catholic. He loved fishing and instilled that on to his children and grandchildren. He served over 30 years at the All Saints Catholic Church, as an usher, providing audio service for group prayer services and spearheaded the yearly Our Lady of Guadalupe celebration. He also attended and assisted in his community church in Georgetown South until his passing.

Benjamin was a hardworking man that provided the best he could for his family and will be greatly missed. He leaves behind his children's mother Leonor Martinez, his six children, Hector, Julio, Veronica, Elizabeth, Laura, and Jaime. His 11 grandchildren, four siblings in Mexico: Lidia, Elvia, Pedro, Alma and other family members. As well as countless friends. His last wishes were to be laid to rest next to his parents, Jose and Eduwiges Martinez Aguilar, in his hometown of Los Reyes.
