“ Dear Russell Family:

Please accept our deepest, sincere condolences on the passing of Earle. He truly was one of a kind and the genuine article.

I will forever remember my long talks with Earle early in the morning at RGS Title while he was in the process of attending to his duly appointed rounds.

Earle's love of Country and tremendous sense of honor and pride in being an American was displayed every day. I'm certain he will be sorely missed by all who knew him. Moreover, all who knew him were truly blessed for the opportunity to have made his acquaintance.

Sincerely,

The Wyman Family
