

Betty Lou Schneider

October 13, 1941 - December 4, 2021

Betty Lou Schneider, beloved wife, mother and grandmother passed away peacefully with her family by her side on December 4th after a courageous battle against cancer.

Betty, also known to her family most lovingly as Mima, was 80 years old and the heart and soul of her family. She was fiercely devoted to her 4 children and 8 grandchildren. When not behind the fine jewelry counter at Macy's, a career she enjoyed very much for over 25 years, she could regularly be found at any number of sporting events, concerts, plays or dance recitals. She never missed an opportunity to show up for her family or let them know how much she loved them. She had an infectious positive outlook on life and raised her family with an attitude that anything was possible with faith, trust and a little pixie dust (as well as hard work).

Betty grew up on a farm in southern Lancaster county with her beloved parents Samuel Carrigan and Susan McFalls who preceded her in death, as well as her older sister Evelyn. Her father was her rock and was a fixture in the Schneider household right up until his death.

Despite being married to a sailor for almost 57 years, Betty was elegant, refined and never drank or smoked. She led an extremely healthy lifestyle, eating clean far before it was trendy and enjoyed exercising. Early on, the Schneider family could be seen riding bikes or jogging together on a regular basis. As her children got older, spending time together at the gym and running on the beach or in a variety of charity races with her girls was treasured time. She was a regular at Lifetime Fitness where she enjoyed spinning classes with her youngest daughter right up until her illness made it impossible for her to get there. She was a faithful Christian and enjoyed fashion & traveling. Being at the beach with her family and driving her convertible were her happy places.

She is survived by her faithful husband of almost 57 years, Charles Schneider Sr; her son Charles Jr and his wife Karen; her daughter Susan Carrigan and her 3 sons Liam, Christian & Eamonn Irving; her daughter Kristen, husband Paul and their 2 sons Cole & Ethan Hoffman; her daughter Heather, husband Walton and their children Matthew, London and Ronin Porter; as well as several furry grand-babies that she adored.

Although diminutive in stature, Betty was strong, courageous & disciplined. She lived a life of integrity and approached each day with love, kindness and a grateful heart. She was the center of her family and will be missed deeply.

In Lieu of flowers, the family asks that you make a donation to your favorite cancer charity.
