“ My sympathy goes out to Cindy and the rest of your family. Betty was a dear, dear lady. A wise person whose words of wisdom I personally was touched by years later when I too lost my husband to cancer. I know you all miss her. May you know the comfort of God's love.

“ Betty was such a sweet lady! I will always remember her smile and how much she loved her daughter, Cindy, and Grand-daughter, Violet. We enjoyed many years worshiping together at Cornerstone Pres. Heaven is rejoicing at her arrival! May God bless and keep her family and bring them comfort and peace.

“ I met Betty many years ago when I joined the team of Care Net Pregnancy Resource Centers in Warrenton. Betty was a faithful volunteer and I enjoyed getting to know her. I remember, on one occasion, I went to visit her and she showed me the beautiful bears she made and sold at many craft shows. It was a precious time and she was a precious lady.

My heart goes out to her family in their time of loss. I am grateful to have known her and look forward to seeing her again one day.

May the God of all compassion bring comfort to all of you.

God Bless,

“ I was fortunate to teach with Betty for 8 years at Independent Hill School. I was a first year teacher and she took me under her wing and guided me those first few months. After her retirement, I visited her and Stewart at their home in the mountains. When I had my son, Betty made his first bear that I still have on display. I have wonderful memories of our times together and I know she treasured her faith and her family. Betty touched the lives of so many people and she will be missed.

“ I met Betty several years ago when we were at a birthday celebration for a mutual friend, Mary Pumphrey. It was at that time I introduced myself to this charming older lady and found out that she made Teddy Bears out of old fur coats. In time I contacted her and eventually had three beautiful Teddy bears made out of old stoles that I had inherited from my Aunt and Mother. They hold a special place in my heart and I have enjoyed having them not only as momentos of my family members but of a dear friend that the Lord brought into my life. From time to time I would visit with Betty when my husband would go to a meeting at Manassas Regional Airport. I enjoyed my fellowship with her and felt like she was a real friend. I will miss visiting with her but will see her later on in eternity.

With deep sympathy,
