“ Ms. Bea was one of the sweetest, kindest ladies I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. She always made you welcome in her home, and had something tasty and home made to offer from her kitchen. She has been a wonderful, loving Mother-in-law to my sister (Mary) for thirty years and the best grandmother my nephews (Tim and Sam) could have ever wished for. Ms. Bea, you will forever be fondly remembered, loved and missed by all.

“ Bebe, my cousin, invited me to be in her wedding and we worked together in Uniontown, Pa at the phone company. Lately we talked at least once a month and in March she sent the most delicious cookies. What a wonderful cousin, mother, grandmother and great grandmother she was. She will certainly be missed by Sherry, Walter and me. May she rest in peace.
