“ when we were young we were a young couple living down the street from bill & ernestine keaton in manassas park. they were always good friends to us and we would b back and forth from our houe to theirs nd vice versa. ernestine would baby sit at times and bill would come down and fix our tv which always would go out at times. our families would go to church together at emanuel at times. we would also have picnics in their backyard with mr. keaton at the grill. he was a person you could look up to for guidance not only for everyday living but spiritually. istill today keep intouch with the family, and i am lucky to have such good memorie of our times together. I will alwways remember Bill walking down th street with Bible in hand going to Emannul church for during the week service. I wish now I had taken that walk with him those times. OH! and also he loved Peach Ice cream! I will miss you Mr. Keaton. Susan Breeden

“ I am just thankful that Mr. Bill came into my life at two separate stages. I met them, Mr. Bill and Ernestine when I was maybe 10 years old. They welcomed us in their home when my mother's singing group was in their town. I have known Linda since I was quite young. But, I always thought, gosh they are so warm and loving. Then, Mr. Bill came into my life again. My family was led to Hatcher's Memorial Baptist Church. Our whole family has been blessed by his kindness and gentleness. We adored his stories and how he unconditionally loved each member of our family. And Trey and I used to tell him what a hard worker he always was. We would always say, " Mr. Bill we'll get that." His response was always , "No thanks, I've got it." Or the time Trey came home and said the men were having a hard time and Mr. Bill came right over and got the job done. He couldn't believe it. He was a strong man, physically Yes, but most of all spiritually. I saw it when I was ten, through him and his family. And saw it again when I was blessed to be surrounded by him and his family. The glory of God was seen in the way he lived day to day and in the sweet family that he had raised. I am truly blessed through Mr. Bill's life and will continue to be.

“ I have so many fond memories of Mr. Bill at Catherine Lake Baptist Church. Some of my best memories are from the children's church ministry. He sure knew how to teach those children. I will never forget the memories of spending time with his family at their home in Richlands. We shared meals, played games and had wonderful fellowship with the Keaton family! Love all of you!

“ We have fond memories of helping Mr. Bill in Childrens Church at Catherine Lake. We were in there to help but we were learning right along with the children. We can just see Mr. Bill marching to "I'm in the Lord's Army" and telling stories with the flannel graph. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. What a legacy Mr. Bill leaves behind.
