“ I had the pleasure of meeting Billie through her sister, JoAnn, with whom I went to Wheaton College. Billie would come to town and hang out with us and our friends. She added some quick wit to our conversations which amused us all.

California is a long way from Chicago, so I didn't see Billie often. The last time we met, she had moved to VA. I had brought some of my high school students for a school program in D.C. Billie met me at a local mall near her and we had a pleasant time catching up. Billie gave her family a loving home. Her two children grew up thoughtful and caring. My family traveled to CA in 1989 and we visited Mr and Mrs Evans. Stephen happened to be with grandma and grandpa at the same time.

Stephen ended up going with us to the Hearst Castle. He and our kids got along well. He and our Eric are about the same age and we all had a nice time.

JoAnn has told me how devoted Christine and Stephen were in caring for their beloved mom. I'm sure they made Billie's final days more bearable.

Billie's pastor and church friends were also frequent visitors to her bedside. This is another indication of how loved she was.

I believe God welcomed her to heaven saying, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant."
