

Billy Hash

September 7, 1934 - February 23, 2025

Billy Hash, age 90 of Nokesville, VA passed on Sunday, February 23, 2025 surrounded by his family.

Born in Whitetop VA in 1934, Billy shared a long and beautiful life with his late spouse, Nannie Hash, married March 14, 1959, in Mountain City, TN with whom they built a loving family. Together, they raised three wonderful children: Surviving children: Steve Hash and wife Cathy, Carol Hinsdale and husband Alan, and Keith Hash and wife Jennie, who will forever cherish their parents' love, guidance, and warmth. Billy was also a proud grandparent to two adored grandchildren, Heather Hash and Sierra Hinsdale, who brought immense joy in the later years. Surviving sister Eva Hayes of Sugar Grove, VA. Preceded in death by six Brothers Wayne Hash, Roy Hash, Fred Hash, Bruce Hash, Blaine Hash and Paul Hash and three sisters, Blanche Hash, Connie Gilbert, and Fay Tolliver.

Billy had 70 plus employed years as a gas line fitter, welder, and most of his career was in construction and a custom home builder.

Billy will be remembered for his love of bluegrass music and his high tenor voice playing in a band with his favorite instrument the mandolin. Following his favorite artist, Bill Monroe.

He will most of all be remembered for his love of his four-legged fur friends, the “dogs” and there were many that shared his life.

The family will receive friends for a celebration of life March 7, 2025, at 12:00 until 1:00 pm with funeral service following. Burial will follow at Stonewall Memory Gardens, Manassas, VA

“ Papa you will be missed! I will miss going out to eat with you and spending the holidays with you. You go to see me grow up and play violin for 8 years and go to my high school graduation. All the furry friends loved you lots! It's been really hard for me since you've been gone. Fly high with granny up in the sky!

Love always,
Sierra
