Tribute Wall

“ Uncle Billy and I would talk on the phone lots of times'.he would talk a lot about his Children and Grandchildren, he always would ask how all of his Family here were doing. we would take pictures sometimes when he came to visit, I talked to him on the phone a few weeks before Thanksgiving and he told me that he was living with his Daughter and he gave me the Address, he would write to me a lot when he was filling well... he Wrote to my Daughter Mary too and he would send pictures sometimes. he Loved his Family very much, he really loved his Children and Grandchildren ,he would always talk about them when he would call or when I would call him. he would always ask how my Brother David was doing ,he said that David looked so much like our DAD (Ray). we talked about so much, he would tell me about some of the FAMILY that I never met. he was a wonderful Man. he had so much Love for everyone, he would do anything for anyone, he was Loving, Careing and always thought about everyone else.he would do anything for anyone. he was loved and will be missed very much by many..So Sorry For Your Loss..
