“ Crawling into bed with You & Alley, swimming in the huge metal bucket, taking trips across the field, hiding in the HUGE circle of bushes by the sidewalk, playing with Pepper, the smell of the dark, cold cellar and our trips out to the garden....those are the memories I hold close to my heart, just as I did the two of you. I will always love you!! I can't wait to see you again.

“ My deepest sympathy to Annie, George, and their family and to everyone who loved Blanche.

I am glad I had the pleasure of meeting her. I shall miss seeing her at family gatherings.

Blanche lived a long and productive life, loved by so many. She was blessed, as is her family.

She left this world a better place because of her presence here.

May she rest in peace and be lovingly remembered by all who knew her.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
