“ Bobby and I had lost touch the past few years, but when I first moved to Virginia, he was one of the first people I met. He was kind and funny, smart and generous. I haven't known many people who were so very close to their family and their pets--even his cat, Abbey, who was not the most friendly girl in the world ::warm smile:: I don't know what happened to you, Bobby, but I send my heartfelt prayers to you, your fiance' and your lovely family, whom I was lucky enough to meet at Logan's for dinner and on a few other occasions. God just took one of the GOOD ones home.
