I'm so sorry for Dean's wife Claudia and his children for the loss of her husband and their Dad. My prayers thoughts are with all of you. I hope your memories of the good life that you have had with him can bring you a little bit of peace. He used to always play jokes on every one and was the life of the party. Give your Mom lots of hugs she is going to need. Them.

I don't remember Dean ever having an unkind word to say about anybody. I also seem to remember he had quite a following of friends as you can tell by all the heart felt messages. He was certainly a fine example of what a nice guy should be. We'll all be seeing you on the other side someday, however until that day happens RIP Dean.
