“ I am so sorry for your loss. Brenda was a wonderful, kind woman. She will be missed by all who knew her. Every Monday morning I would go to the American Legion for business, walk through the bingo hall and there she would be in her favorite chair, waving and saying good morning to me...it always made my day...until Monday when the chair was empty. I can't tell you how sad it makes me. Hold on to your beautiful memories of her. God Bless you all.
