“ I worked with Brenda at oak springs. We took the cna class together. I remember we were so scared to do our clinicals. She had everyone laughing and made us feel more comfortable. She confessed on the way back she was scared the whole time. We have been friends ever since. I’m honored I got to have her as a part of my life. Prayers to the family & friends.

“ My heart is broken over Brenda's death. We worked together at Nokesville hair design for years. She kept everyone in stitches as soon as she walked in, we laughed all day best place to work it wasn't working it was a comedy club we loved her. We went on so many girls weekend trips to the outer banks Brenda Myself, Lois, Pam, Frances, We would laugh for hours, our bellies hurt our jaws ached. Brenda was an amazing friend. I will truly miss her our lunch get togethers. Robert and family please except my most heartfelt condolences and Prayers. Rest in peace girl I know you have the angels rolling in laughter.

“ It is with regret that I had limited moments with Brenda, but tho brief in time, those moments made apparent to me, that Brenda possessed an innate and grounded gift of "Kindness". I can't recall who initiated this important saying but it boldly defines the power of Kindness - "Kindness is the language which the deaf can hear and the blind can see". Brenda's kindness would seem to apply and to guide her in her multiple, connective relationships as a friend, co-worker, wife, mother, stepmother, sister, aunt, grandmother and in-law. To each of you who are now and who will continually miss Brenda's presence, may Brenda's many gifts remain and live on in your future days and be a source of comfort and guidance to each of you.

“ Remember this one day pops came in asking us to help find this baby calf. We jumped up ran out to help, forgot to put shoes on. We ran around those fields stepping in cow patties and kept going till we found the calf. We laughed so hard afterwards. The day we found out Elvis passing we sat up all night crying watching his movies. Give my Dad, brother and your parents a big hug. I'll miss you fly high till we meet again some day 💔😭
