

Brent Dixon

January 9, 1940 - September 8, 2025

Brent Dixon, 85, of Haymarket, Virginia, passed away peacefully on September 8, 2025, at Fairfax Hospital following a long illness.

Born to James M. Dixon and Josephine Kilby Dixon of Laurel, Maryland, Brent was a devoted husband, stepfather, and grandfather who touched the lives of all who knew him.

Brent is survived, of 25 years, his loving wife, Carolyn S. Dixon; his stepsons Michael Wayne Vizzuto (Caroline) and John Steven Vizzuto (Kaycie); and his granddaughter, Allison Vizzuto. As an only child, Brent was blessed with close family relationships, including his beloved cousin Linda Lodge, whom he loved as a sister, along with cousins Charles Kilby, Kathy Jackson (Michael), and Holly Sutliff (John). He also embraced and loved Carolyn's extended family as his own.

A proud graduate of Laurel High School and the University of Maryland, Brent dedicated 25 years of his career to federal service, specializing in computer systems installation at military bases throughout the United States and internationally. His technical expertise and commitment to service made a lasting impact on military operations worldwide.

Brent and Carolyn shared a passion for adventure and exploration, spending their retirement years golfing, cruising to destinations around the globe, and visiting America's beautiful national parks. Their shared love of travel and the outdoors created countless cherished memories.

He was preceded in death by his parents, James M. Dixon and Josephine Kilby Dixon.

Brent's legacy of love, dedication, and adventure will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.
