

Brian Lloyd Black

October 10, 1963 - November 8, 2023

Brian Lloyd Black, aged 60, passed away on November 8, 2023, in Manassas, VA. He was born on October 10, 1963, in Ft. Belvoir, VA. Brian was a beloved individual who will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Brian was known for his humorous nature, bringing laughter to those around him. He cherished his family vacations in Myrtle Beach, creating lasting memories filled with laughter and love. In his younger years, Brian displayed remarkable talent and passion for sports, particularly excelling in running. His lifelong devotion to sports continued, with a special affinity for supporting the Washington Nationals baseball team. Brian was also a boy scout and achieved the honor of Eagle Scout.

Brian is survived by his beloved daughter, Violet M. Black, and his siblings, Kathi Jenkins of Vienna, VA, Paula Furey of Key Largo, FL, and Robert Black of West Springfield, VA. He was preceded in death by his mother, Lois A. Black and father, Robert L. Black, Brian graduated from Thomas A. Edison High School and continued his higher education at George Mason University, graduating with a BA in Public Administration.

Throughout his career in the field of Human Resources, Brian made significant contributions and was highly respected by his colleagues.

In his leisure time, Brian enjoyed spending time with his daughter, attending baseball games, spending time with his friends, and relishing the shores of the beach.

A memorial service to honor Brian's life will be held on December 17 at 3:00 PM at Pierce Funeral Home in Manassas, Virginia. In lieu of flowers, consider contributing to Violet's college fund. She is currently attending her first year at James Madison University. Education was a priority of Brian's.

Brian Lloyd Black will forever be remembered for his sharp wit, infectious smile and warm heart. May his soul find eternal peace.
