“ So sad to hear of the passing of a really great guy who would do anything for you. When I say that, I am reminded of the guy who was at my house when my dumb dog decided to run through the glass door. The poor dog was cut badly, but who do you think was the first person to grab the dog and hop in the back of the truck and say, let's go. My friend Brian Detty or as we called him BD. He was covered in blood by the time we got to the vet, but made no difference to him. His concern was the dog. He would take nothing other than a thank you. Gonna miss my favorite BDism -High and to the right!
