

Bronwen Stebbins

May 26, 1968 - January 12, 2013

Bronwen Anne Stebbins Faul was born on May 26, 1968 in Billings, Montana. She died on January 12, 2013 at her home in Bristow, Virginia. Bronwen graduated from Libby High School in 1986. She received a degree from Lower Columbia College in Longview, WA and graduated with a pharmacy degree from Washington State University. She and Roger Faul were together for 21 years. She had worked as a pharmacist both in Boise, Idaho and Virginia. Bronwen met Roger while attending school at Lower Columbia College. They were later married in May of 2000.

Bronwen loved traveling and spent time in Mexico, Canada, Israel, and Europe, especially Italy. She loved her family, friends, dogs, and her home. She was extremely generous and leaves many close friends who will always miss her. Bronwen was a distance runner. She ran cross-country at Libby High School and at Lower Columbia College.

She continued fitness running throughout her life. Bronwen loved music and was active in the Libby High School Band. She continued to play the piano throughout her life. The last two summers Bronwen enjoyed visiting Troy, Montana to see her sister, brother and father. They hiked in the Cabinets, visited old friends, and took a driving trip through Glacier Park. She always dreamed about returning to Montana and was considering buying a summer home in the Yaak River country.

Bronwen is survived by her husband Roger in Bristow, Virginia: her father, Paul Stebbins and her stepmother Sue Ballard in Lacey, WA: her sister, Scotia

Gonzales in Boise ID: her brother, Perry Stebbins in Troy, MT: stepbrother, Gary Wall in Vancouver, WA: her nephew, J.P. Gonzales. Her mother-in-law, Lillie Faul, and her sisters in law and their families will also miss her. Bronwen was preceded in death by her mother, Lillian Stebbins.

A memorial service was held for Bronwen in Manassas, VA on January 19, 2013 from 10 to noon. After the service there will be refreshments and light meal at Roger's home. She will be laid to rest with her mother later.

In lieu of flowers the family requests memorial gifts be made on her behalf to a charity of your choice.
