

Bruce Benton Davidson

October 5, 1951 - June 17, 2026

Bruce Benton Davidson, 74, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on June 17, 2026.

Born on October 5, 1951, in St. Louis, Missouri, Bruce lived a life defined by dedication to his family, a love of learning, and a deep appreciation for the simple joys of life. He was an avid reader who never missed an opportunity to learn something new, and he found great happiness tending to the family farm. Whether working the land, spending time with loved ones, or enjoying a good book, Bruce approached life with quiet strength, wisdom, and gratitude. Above all, Bruce cherished his family. His unwavering love, guidance, and support created a legacy that will live on through the generations he helped shape. He took immense pride in his children and grandchildren and treasured the time spent together making memories that will be forever cherished.

Bruce is survived by his beloved wife, Gail Davidson; his children, Brian Davidson, Scott Davidson, and Kimberly Davidson; his daughters-in-law, Betty Anne Davidson and Dee Davidson; and his grandchildren, James Davidson, Reese Davidson, and Mark Davidson. He also leaves behind many extended family members and dear friends who will miss him greatly.

Though our hearts are heavy with loss, we find comfort in celebrating a life well lived and a man deeply loved. Bruce's kindness, wisdom, and devotion to family will remain an enduring source of inspiration to all who knew him.

Bruce will be laid to rest at National Memorial Cemetery at Quantico. An intimate family service will be held to honor his life. In lieu of flowers, the family welcomes donations to the Alzheimer's Association.
