

Bruce Edward Kindle

March 2, 1956 - January 12, 2020

Bruce Edward Kindle, age 63, passed away in his home in Manassas, VA on Sunday, January 12, 2020. He was born in Bishop, California, and was survived by his three children, Brooke Utley, Jenny Kindle-Moorcones, and Scott Markwith, his sister Lori Hansen, and his six grandchildren, Sierra, Michael, Bailee, Samantha, Tristyn, and Ashtyn. Mr. Kindle was preceded in death by his sister, Sue Marie Kindle, and his parents, Edward and Daisy Kindle (nee Stone).

Mr. Kindle was an avid reader and patriot, and enjoyed fishing, hunting, and watching football. In 2007, he proudly accepted a Master Angler Award in Pennsylvania. In his earlier years he was a cable splicer, and went on to work in fiber optics, contributing to the development of the world wide web.

Mr. Kindle's closest friends will join his immediate family for a private celebration of life in the Spring of 2020.

Tribute Wall

PA

“ We are so sorry for your loss. May the love of family and friends comfort you. Our thoughts and prayer are with you.

With Sympathy

Jim & Pat Weber

Pat - January 20, 2020 at 07:49 PM

SW

“ I'm so sorry for your loss, Bruce was always nice to me and talkative when I was around. May he rest and share in Gods love. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

From, Stephen Weber

Stephen Weber - January 20, 2020 at 06:31 PM