“ Our deepest sympathy to Bobbie, Pam, Jan, Gene, Ellie & John for the loss. "Doc" was a true Southern Gentleman, a dear friend and will be sorely missed and thought of for many years to come.

"Doc" Moody will always be remembered as a helping hand throughout Prince William County both on an individual basis and through the many organizations that he was affiliated with.

Our hearts are with the Moody Family in their hour of need and "Doc" will always be in our hearts.

“ Doc Moody, the all American Southern Gentleman with a great story and a can do attitude, will be one of the brightest stars in my evening sky for decades to come. We are all diminished and saddened by this loss but blessed by our days shared with him. My thoughts will be with you in these difficult days.

“ So sorry to hear about Mr. Moody. Our hearts go out to the family. He was a great role model and community leader. I have great memories of Mr. & Mrs. Moody cutting up the dance floor at all the dances and weddings, and all the fun we had at the fair every year. He will be sadly missed in the community. Mr. Moody always had a smile and kind word plus a joke to tell to make you laugh!
