

Carey Burke Smith

May 25, 1954 - July 15, 2024

Carey Burke Smith of Manassas Virginia passed away Monday, July 15, 2024. She was born in Buffalo New York on May 25, 1954, and moved to Virginia in 1977. Carey was a city of Manassas schoolteacher at Weems, Haydon, Jeannie Dean, Round, Mayfield, and Mets for over 30 years. She is preceded in death by her parents, John and Gloria Burke, and her sister Beth Ann Burke. She is survived by her brother John Paul Burke of Waxhaw, North Carolina; her husband Leo C Smith; her sons Ryan Jackson of Centreville, and Kevin (Rosa) Jackson, and her grand-Bubbies Jordan Clark and Mason Jose Jackson. Carey was a loving wife, beloved Mom and Grandma. She was fiercely passionate about her family, and loved to travel, have fun, help others, and volunteer her time. Donations in lieu of flowers can be made to the macular degeneration foundation Inc. P. O. Box 531313, Henderson, NV 89053 or at (www.eyesight.org).

“ Carey and I began teaching together in 1977 at Weems. Two fresh out of school 1st grade teachers. Carey was always fun and funny. Loved the NY accent. I was fortunate to talk to her at Mayfield during a Veterans’ Day event. Glad to catch up for a moment. I’m very sorry to hear of her passing. My prayers are with her family. God give you strength to handle her passing. Sincerely, Pam (Cramer) Belch

Pam Belch - July 31, 2024 at 06:16 PM

Thank you Pam for relating your memories of Carey, and you prayers for the family. Leo

“ I'm sorry for Mr. Leo and deeply saddened to hear this. I had the pleasure of speaking with his wife frequently on the phone when I supported Mr. Leo in the Front Office at the Pentagon, and formally met her during his retirement ceremony. We talked about how she was actually a teacher at the elementary school and middle schools that I attended in Manassas - both Weems Elementary and Jennie Dean Middle School. My sincerest condolences and thoughts go out to Mr. Leo and his family.

“ Leo, my deepest condolences on the loss of your wonderful wife and best friend. I only had the opportunity to meet Carey twice but knew immediately she was a wonderful person and the two of you had a deeply loving relationship. I am so sorry. I know how profound this loss is for you and my thoughts and prayers are with you.
