“Wow! Already a year has gone by since you went on to your reward. You would be happy to know that you left behind a legacy of superb memories that will be shared to following generations. You were the patriarch of an awesome family! I hope to be able to have the same work ethic and strength that you had.

~ Carl Louis Hitt III

*“ Sorry for your loss, i have known Carl for years. He dealt with dad at the Sunoco in Yorkshire for years , he used to buy race gas for his 1968 Mercury Cyclone , of course i was young then but understood what he did. Real nice person. I ran in to him once in awhile , sent friends to him to repair at his shop in the park. Always liked him ! I hope his Journey with the Lord he will find the time to help others up there Heck of a Nice Person !!!
I just know he is fixing something !!! Donald Cross*

“ Papa,

I miss you already. Staying at Nans will not be the same. I'm sure you're there shaking hands with Papa Child's in heaven; what a glorious thought. You had it instilled in me to work as hard as you possibly can. I will continue to try my best helping and comforting Nan. Love and miss you so much.
