

Carmen D. Villani, Sr.

November 26, 1930 - June 23, 2014

CARMEN D. VILLANI, SR., 83, Manassas, VA passed away Monday, June 23, 2014 at Novant Prince William Medical Center.

He was born on November 26, 1930 in Newark, NJ the son of the late Raymond and Emily Villani.

A loving husband, father and grandfather, he is survived by his two sons Carmen Jr. and wife Kim, Vincent, his wife Lorrie, and granddaughter Olivia.

The family is having a private ceremony at the cemetery and prays that all who knew our Dad, will find peace in knowing that our parents are now together forever.

The loved ones that we miss so much, their caring heart, their soothing touch; the way they always made you smile, every moment with them was worth while

And although they are gone away, there's one thing that always stays; their memory, though the rest is at bay

So if a loved one disappears, remember their memory will always be here
Written by Olivia Villani, Granddaughter

Tribute Wall

PS

“ Pam Sandars lit a candle in memory of Carmen D. Villani, Sr.

Pam Sandars - June 27, 2014 at 06:37 PM

PS

I will miss his laugh and smile but I know the wisdom and caring that he had for his family will always be in our hearts. Love to Popsie who is with Ma and is at peace and pain free.

Pam Sandars - June 27, 2014 at 06:43 PM

OV

“ The loved ones that we miss so much, their caring heart, their soothing touch; the way they always made you smile, every moment with them was worth while

And although they are gone away, there's one thing that always stays; their memory, though the rest is at bay

So if a loved one disappears, remember their memory will always be here

Written by Olivia Villani, Granddaughter

Olivia Villani - June 27, 2014 at 05:35 PM