

Carol Brush

March 29, 1930 - January 14, 2021

Agnes Caroline Brush, age 90, passed away on January 14, 2021.

She was born on March 29, 1930 in Staten Island, NY to the late Harry Gerald and Felicia Theresa (Sawicki) Gorsuch.

Carol, as people called her, was a bright light to so many. Her faith and her family were the most important things in her life. She found great fulfillment in the friendships that she developed through attending church, Sunday School, and her BSF Bible study. She was known by all as a prayer warrior and felt that was her spiritual calling. Being with her family and especially her grandchildren brought so much joy to her days. She shared her love by sending out hundreds of cards over the years filled with encouragement and prayer and baking for others. She also enjoyed sewing, knitting, and doing crossword puzzles in her free time as well as cheering on her beloved Patriots and Red Sox.

Predeceased by her parents, her husband: LeRoy Brush, Sr.; one daughter: Carol Robbins and one brother: John Gorsuch.

Survivors include five children: LeRoy Brush, Jr. and wife Allison, Sue Fisher and husband Tom, Patricia Fields, Barbara Kusak and husband Jack, Mary Kasparian and husband Kyle; one brother: George Gorsuch and wife Paula; grandchildren: Lincoln, Samuel, Emma, MacKenzie, Steve, Heather, Kristen; great grandchildren: Kinsley and Alex.

A Memorial Service will be held in the Spring at Pierce Funeral Home, 9609 Center Street, Manassas, VA with Pastor David Donahue officiating. Interment will be held at Evergreen Cemetery in Winchester, New Hampshire at a later date.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of a donation to the Manassas Baptist Church Benevolent Fund at 8730 Sudley Rd Manassas, VA 20110
