

Carol Centorcelli

December 29, 1942 - November 12, 2023

Carol Centorcelli was born in Brooklyn, New York, on December 12, 1942. She grew up in Queens, New York, married and had three children, two daughters and a son. Carol and her husband, Dario, raised the family in Queens. Carol's son, Dario, passed away in 1989 at the age of 27. Carol and her husband eventually moved to Long Island but a divorce soon followed. Carol worked for Stony Brook University Hospital as an administrative assistant in Pediatric Gastroenterology. Carol retired in 2010 and moved to Virginia to be near her older daughter, Lisa Centorcelli.

Carol spent her retirement years being very active in Regency at Dominion Valley. Carol loved to bowl and was a member of a Regency Bowling team for 13 years. Carol loved to play games and she played Canasta, Mah Jong and Bunco. She enjoyed going to shows and activities sponsored by her community. The highlight of her life was the trips she took to Europe with the community, and she visited 16 European countries. (Italy, England, Scotland, Iceland, Norway, Finland, Germany, Poland, Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Spain, Portugal, Morocco, Austria and Switzerland) A few weeks each winter Carol spent time in Florida or Texas where her older daughter now lives.

Carol leaves behind her sister Ruth Hein (Robert), two daughters Lisa Centorcelli Oswald (William), Caroline Moss (Timothy), five grandchildren,

Matthew Centorcelli, Samantha Martinez (Peter), Nicholas Santeramo, Amanda Bretz (Nicholas), and Patricia Centorcelli. Carol has four great grandchildren, Elizabeth Joseph, Dominick Martinez, Charleigh Centorcelli and Kayleigh Centorcelli. Carol loved seeing her family and Christmas was a special time for her to visit with them. Carol and her wonderful smile will be missed by family and friends.
