“ Carol was a treasured friend and colleague. I will miss her dearly- her laugh, her intellect, her thoughtfulness, her caring for her family and students. Her beauty shines through in all she did. I will cherish our good times- and admire her courage in not so good times.

“ I was fortunate to know Carol as a colleague and a friend. We worked together at Fred Lynn Middle School and after I moved to Marsteller Middle, she followed the next year. We enjoyed having lunch together with our friends Annette and Mary. Carol has the most infectious laugh and we spent more time laughing than eating. I must say, though, for a tiny person, Carol could put away a lot of food! She was such a joyous addition to my life and I'm so fortunate to have so many wonderful memories.
