“ Mr. Gilbert & family,

I'm so very sorry for you all but I know how thankful you must be that Mrs. Gilbert has no more pain to bear. What an awesome lady that I'm so proud to have known. I remember when she drove me around Manassas one day when Cindy and I were visiting and told me about different places and talked so lovingly about her pride and joy - you and her children. She was always so welcoming and I'll never forget that beautiful smile. How blessed you all are for having her for your wife and mom. You'll always be in my prayers. Love,
