“ There are so many memories I have of Carol and all of them are worth telling. Needless to say we always had good times and will cherish those memories for ever. I do believe my favorite memories was when we would go camping. She loved camping and spending time with her family. Carol I hope you are up there camping!!! We love and miss you. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ So glad that Carol is relieved of her suffering!!! Prayers for all those who are deeply grieving her passing, today and always. Her door was always open, as was her heart. Her mean streak will be missed as much as her laughter, lol!!! ALL of her character is what made her loved(0;

“ The last good memory of my mother was the crazy stories that the nurse told me that she had gotten in bed with the gentlemans across the hall from her and one time she came out if her room and said she was going fishing with some dudes. To funny. At our old apartment she had snuck out of the apartment and took her key so she thought she was being slick but mark found her outside and she was looking for an alligator n was telling people that they need to take their kids inside.

The last memory I have is last weekend me picking her up to take her out for the day by surprise. We went shopping n had lunch then I did her laundry and cleaned her room. She kissed me over and over and told me how much she lived me and how grateful she was to have me even though we've had our ups and downs but in the end I was there for her and that made me feel so good. Now she's in peace with her lived ones, most of all her sister. God bless them both. My two mothers RIP

I'm lost without you mom!!????????????????????????????????
