“ When Carolyn would announce "I have to pay my water bill", I knew it was almost time to go home, a happy time! We worked the overnight shift together for nearly nine years, and were desk neighbors for the past three. Carolyn was a level headed, hard working, funny, kind, and generous person. Many a time I sought her counsel for a reality check. She was the first one to contribute to our shift celebrations and events, always asking if everything was under control, and offering "just let me know what I can do to help". When unkind words were heard from the team, she would pipe up, "Be nice!" I hear her voice speaking these words as I write. She was a reliable teammate, with a solid work ethic. In both personal and professional ways, I have sorely missed Carolyn this past year as she battled cancer. In every conversation I had with her, she always asked for prayers. Alas, the prayers were not answered in the way we would have liked, but God knows best. May she soar high with the angels, and know that we are thankful for her, all the laughter, M&M's, energy drinks, Lysol spray, birthday cards, and the kind words she shared. Farewell dear Carolyn, time to go Home, no more water bills to pay.

“ Ms. Carolyn and I were two of the five people who started working for DHL 9 years ago on July 15, 2014. Three of them left the company and it was only Carolyn, and I were left from the same group. Every time I was seeing her in the office, she was making a joke "it is only you and I survived, Elmir" Now, Ms. Carolyn left me alone. But I am very fortunate to get to know her all these years. She was very professional, kind and helpful. I will definitely miss her. I hope she is in peace now.

“ Carolyn was a beautiful person, great to work with, and always reliable. She had looked after my cats for me when my grandfather was dying and I had to travel back home leaving them behind for an extended time. I will be forever grateful for her, and she will be genuinely missed.
