“ I have always felt that my sister Carolyn was a gift to me from our parents! She was a delightful little person from the very beginning, lively, feisty and gentle by turn. She evolved into a beautiful woman and married a handsome red haired man and they had three of the most beautiful children imaginable! Carolyn spirit was her crowning achievement! Artistic and spirited, she was the kindest most gentle person in my life! She had a deep love for living creatures including companion animals Fang, Fozzie and Izod to name a few! We grew up in Red Hill, North Carolina in the shadow of Pumpkin Patch Mountain. Red Hill was a patch of red clay that made gardening a challenge! Carolyn of the flying angels, cussing at June bugs in summer! Oh I miss you so, you have gone where the blue birds fly, where I hope to join you someday!

“ My dearest Carolyn . I think of you and hear you laughing . Fun, practical, creative and a tough fighter. I miss you now and I will miss you forever. For me, words do not capture the loss I feel. You have the most loving children and partner in life who adore and love you more than life itself . Your fun will stay alive in me, your passions will as well . Love you Carolyn , love you .
