“ Poem for my beautiful sister

I will remember the times we spent together. When we was young laughing, walking and doing things together.

The arguing, fights we had together, but in the end we always came together.

So you rest my beautiful sister. I will see you again. That's the one thing that no one can control or change, or take, is us being together.

Love your sister. Debbie

“ Rebecca and I went four wheeling and Mama shook her head and laughed at us the entire time. ❤️ I remember her shouting “Don’t go and get yourself hurt you two”. Nothing like motherly love. You will be missed, so incredibly much.
