“ Catherine was my mentor when we were both Pink Lady's at Prince William hospital Emergency room. We shared many exciting experiences with the doctors, nurses and patients. I've missed her so since I moved from Manassas but comforted that she's with Our Lord forever.

“ As long as I breathe, Catherine will live in my heart and mind...for her kindness, her goodness, her fun sense of humor and her love.

My favorite memories, as a kid, were Catherine's scary stories and doing the Can Can for us! She could have us scared to death one minute and laughing the next.

She was always there for my family...always caring...and I will remember her ALWAYS!

“ My family were former neighbors of Catherine during the years our two sons, Bill and Jack, were growing up. They often played at Catherine's house with Dawn and Jennifer, two of her granddaughters that also lived on Fairmont Avenue. Our entire family has known and loved Catherine for over 35 years and her unique personality and loving ways will be greatly missed by all of us.

*A Poem for Catherine
by Peggy Kiefer*

*A goodhearted woman will surely not fade
From the memories of the many friends she has made.*

*Riches can dwindle and strength does not last
As life flies away so blindingly fast.*

*But when someone loves by being thoughtful and kind
She builds up treasures she can leave behind.*

“ Catherine was my grandmother, yet not literally. We lived next door to Catherine and Ed since we moved to Manassas in 1965 when I was but 2-1/2 years old. Catherine played an integral role in the lives of my brother Greg and I. I remember going to her house for Christmas cookies. On Halloween, she would always give out candy but would give us a bug candy bar with a silver dollar taped to the wrapper. When I went into the Army in 1985, Catherine and Ed took me out for a prime rib dinner in Manassas. She was a true living Saint among the mortal. My memories of Catherine will always be cherished. I'm certain she is in heaven reunited with her loving husband Ed.
God Bless this wonderful woman.

“ I just found out last week that Catherine had passed away. I was very saddened by the news, as she was a very friendly and compassionate lady. My mom, Evelyn Dillon, and her were good friends for many years. Catherine helped take my mom places after my mom could not drive anymore and I greatly appreciated that. I'll always remember your mom.
