“ To all who knew Cecil,I share your grief in losing your husband,your father,your uncle, your brother, your granddad, or your friend. I was glad to count Cecil as one of my friends. He was warm, funny, sarcastic and had a heart of gold. He was a big guy with a big laugh. Cecil would want us to remember him just the way he lived, with gusto and enthusiam. I will honor him by doing the same; living life with gusto and enthusiam.

“ To the Davis Family,

During times of loss words seem to be so inadequate, but please know that my prayers are with each of you and most importantly God is with you. May you find strength in the Lord knowing that he is always there and will get you through today and the days ahead. Although, I had'nt seen Cecil in years I was able to text him not long ago and let him know that he was on my mind and that I was praying for him and his strength. Please know that his suffering is over and to be absent from this earthly presence is to be present with the Lord.

In love and sympathy.

“ Cecil, you will be greatly missed. I will never forget the fast and thrilling motorcycle ride you gave me and I will never forget all the times you called our office and tricked me with your several different change of voices. You sure got me everytime. You were definitely a practical joker and full of life and laughter. R.I.P Cecil

“ Cecil will be missed, but never forgotten. You will always have him with you...cherish the memories, the stories, and the traditions. We never really lose the people we love. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. Please find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love. May God grant your family His peace and strength during this time.
