

Cecil Ray Henry

May 29, 1943 - October 19, 2018

Cecil Ray Henry, age 75, went to be with the Lord on Friday, October 19, 2018 in Manassas, VA. Ray had recently moved to Virginia to help his daughter, Stacey and her kids.

Ray was born in New Cumberland, WVA on May 29, 1943. He was raised by his parents William Howard Henry and Ruth Elizabeth Wells Henry. He lived in Follansbee, WVA and went to Milligan College in Tennessee.

Ray had several careers throughout his lifetime: Teacher at Florida Air Academy, Chemist working in the Aloe Vera business and most recently retired as owner of Environment Energy Improvements.

Ray was preceded in death by his parents and son-in-law Gregory Imel. He is survived by his daughters, Stacey Imel and Andrea (Scott) Jordan, grandchildren: Ryan Imel, Matthew Jordan, John Jordan, Jared Imel and Katelynne Imel, ex-wife Joan Bowers and long-time provider and friend Blanca Amaya. He was always a very happy, positive person and will be missed by his family and friends.

Per his wishes he will be cremated, with his ashes spread by his daughters at a later date. A memorial service for family and friends will be held on Friday, October 26, 2018 at First Baptist Church Chapel at 7 pm in Harlingen, Texas.

“ I thought Mr. Henry was a kind and special man. I have sweet memories of being around him many years ago when I was blessed to be a school friend of Andrea. My deepest condolences to Andrea, Stacey and all his precious family and friends. The separation is so painful but Christ as our savior brings so much comfort in the promise of Eternity. I will be praying for you all. God bless you and keep you in His arms,
