

Charles Milton Anderson

March 7, 1938 - April 1, 2018

Charles Milton Anderson, 80, of Manassas, passed away on Sunday, April 1, 2018, at his home.

A civil engineer, he was the owner of A.A. Engineering and was a veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps. He enjoyed building backyard play equipment for his grandchildren and yardwork. He worked out regularly, in which he took great pride and loved to bake.

Survivors include his son, Donald Charles Anderson and his wife Lou Ellon White Anderson and their children, Jillyanne Sue and Tyler Charles Anderson, a daughter, Lena Craft and her children, Matthew Edward Garand and Cassie Rebecca Craft, a daughter, Sue Dow and her husband Charles Adair Dow and their children, Britney Adair and Brandon Hestand Dow, a granddaughter, Alyssa Anne White and her fiancée J. R. Ference and their daughter, Rylee Anne Ference and a son-in-law, Scott White. He was predeceased by his wife, Mitsuko Higa Anderson and a daughter, Ann Marie White.

Funeral services will be private.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Chuck was truly a good man full of energy and I knew when I'd see him my stomach and face were going to hurt from laughing. I'm glad I got to enjoy chucks company as we tackled some really cool projects together I will really miss him he was an awesome friend my condolences to his family here is a bear me and chuck carved and a cabin I engraved for him I'm going to miss him a lot

Jason miller - April 19, 2018 at 07:48 PM