“ To the Blevins Family: I wanted to take this time to extend my most deepest condolences. I read about the loss of your Father in the obituary today and I am truly sorry. Death is not easy for us as humans to face, and sometimes we may find it a struggle to endure. It's comforting to know that we can always turn to God and his Word the Bible to give us the right words of encouragement at the right time like at Revelation 21:3,4 which reads in part:"And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Again your family will be in my prayers, my sincere condolences.
