“ Mr. Charlie was the inspiration for me to pursue my first master's degree in my mid-forties and my second master's degree in my mid-fifties. I determined if Mr. Charlie could do it I could do it, even though I was advanced in years above the majority of my classmates. My life has been impacted in a positive way simply because of observing the choices that he made and his determination to succeed. He, along with Miss Pat, will be missed!

“ Charlie Byrd will be missed. I have fond memories of conversations with Charlie at church. He was always polite and loved to share stories of days past. Charlie was true example of a Christian, you knew that God was first in his life. Rest In Peace friend. Prayers for the family and friends.
