“ Your husband was a wonderful teacher. He taught my son English and I know he truly cared about him. I am very sorry for your loss and will be praying for you and your little ones. May God hold you and your your family close and give you comfort at his time and for the days and months to come. Thank you for sharing your husband and your daddy with the rest of us he will all miss him.

“ Words can not begin to express how I feel. Charles was more than a coworker, he was my friend. He was dedicated to his students and had a real passion for teaching. I will truly miss him. He inspired me and helped me to grow as a teacher and as a child of God. I hope that you are comforted in the knowledge that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I are praying for you and I are here for you. Please call me if you ever need anything.

“ Mrs. Garner, I would like to express my deepest sympathy. You may not think so at this moment but God has taken him to a better place. He has touched so many lives in so many ways and now it is time for God to work in others with what Mr. Garner has taught them.

We know that you are going thru a tough time. Just know that God is with you. You are in our prayers.

“ Dear Mr.Garner's family: I really wish Mr.Garner was still here because he didn't deserved to die for any reason. At least we know that he is in a much better place watching over all of his family and friends also his students. In honor of him most of the students where ties all the time. And I, Diamond Dixon, was one of his 4th period students for math. Mr.Garner was one of my favorite students and im not just saying that to say it. I really mean it. We will miss him so we just have to pray every chance we get because we love him!!!!!!!!!! he was funny and sarcastic, all the kids laughed. once again we loved him. feel better!!!!!!!!!! Bye

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Garner family during this difficult time. Jay was a student in Mr. Garner's English and Math classes. It was apparent how much Mr. Garner cared about his profession and his students. Jay truly admired and respected him. He will be deeply missed.

“ Wow. It's been forever. It's been 5 years.. Still think about you quite often. You were an amazing teacher and you did so much for all of your students. Seemed unreal at first. But it just goes to show you that unexpected things can happen. You are still truly missed. I still continue to send the best wishes to you loved ones.
