“ Wonderful memories of many years of Cahill / Garvey friendship. Early morning wake-up visits from Eddie in a house where we all slept late, lots of beer, lots of cars (not necessarily together), "come down to the house!", Thanksgiving dinners... And always love and laughter, especially with my father and Eddie; an unlikely pairing that grew into a friendship that my dad cherished dearly. Eddie was one of the most authentic people I've ever known: open, generous, passionate, funny, and in a constant state of motion. We're lucky to have landed in his orbit for a little while and to enjoy the beauty and continuing love from/with Michael, Sabine, and Rose; we're keeping them all. Cheers, Eddie, and I hope you and Dad are having a grand time.

“ John and I have been friends with Eddie for over 25 years and spent many vacations together in Myrtle Beach. His willingness to always go the extra mile for anyone who needed a hand will be the quality I remember the most. Fondly, Carol Lloyd “ Condolences to the family and best to Eddie's friends. Eddie and I were casual friends from our teenage years up until recently, having visited him several times in Martinsburg the last couple years. I know that he is in that better place now, waiting on his buddies... It won't be long, old pal. God Bless and R.I.P.
