“ I've known and enjoyed Renny's friendship from some time during the 80's. Involved in association management, Renny and I would see each other several times a year. His gracious manner, quick wit, and warmth always made me feel like a true friend. I will truly miss his presence.

And will remember him in my prayers.

“ I was saddened to learn of Renny's passing. I first met Renny many years ago when he worked with Marty at CSCI/CAS & was working with him on a new client proposal at ASI. He will be missed.
I am sorry that I am unable to attend the services but know that you will be in our thoughts & prayers.

“ I knew Renny because of my association with NiUG. Renny always seemed to truly care for my opinion and seeked it out. He was not afraid to make a difficult phone call or contact. I will miss my discussions with him at ASI and NiUG events as well as the occasional phone calls to my office.

My thoughts and prayers are with the Hull family as you must now have a huge void in your lifes.

“ I worked with Renny, and while I actually never met him, we communicated regularly via email and phone.

He was a genuinely nice and giving person. I could always count on him for assistance on anything.

I'm truly sad for the Hull family's loss.

May he rest in peace.
