“ Charles Sedgwick (Charlie!) Potter was an outstanding leader and "most popular guy" in high school (Prom King!) — an excellent student there and at Northwestern University. He, his dear parents and both brothers constituted a much-admired family. I was just one of many! who counted Charlie as a "best friend". We lost him, with his great/winning smile-and-personality, much too soon. I'm just one of many who think of him m-a-n-y times, always with fondness and admiration.
