

Cheryl Lynn Britten

May 29, 1965 - January 24, 2025

Cheryl Lynn Britten, 59, passed away on January 24, 2025, in Manassas, Virginia. Born on May 29, 1965, in Blytheville, Arkansas, Cheryl was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, and sister whose warmth, passions and creativity touched the lives of many.

Cheryl is survived by her devoted husband of 40 years, Thomas Britten; her son, Joshua Britten; her daughter, Jennifer Calen Britten; and her cherished grandson, Christopher Britten. She also leaves behind her mother and stepfather, Peggy and Richard Rhodes; her sister, Patty Horiszewski; her brother Robert Rhodes; and her stepbrothers, Richard Jr., and Douglas Rhodes. She was preceded in death by her stepsister, Rebecca Stone.

Cheryl had an artistic heart and a passion for creating beauty through her craft. She was rarely without a project in progress and found joy in knitting and crocheting. Each new addition to the family was welcomed with one of Cheryl's lovingly handmade blankets—treasured gifts that embodied the care and devotion she poured into everything she did.

Deeply loved by family and friends alike, Cheryl's presence brought warmth and kindness to those around her. Her absence will be profoundly felt by all who knew her.

Cheryl's memory will live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

Cheryl was a strong, brave woman, and a survivor of childhood abuse. Her family asks that in lieu of flowers donations in her honor be made to Prevent Child Abuse <https://preventchildabuse.org/>
