

Christine Joan Cobb

September 28, 1950 - August 17, 2024

Christine Cobb, beloved wife, mother, sister and best Babci, passed away August 17, 2024. She was 73. Christine was predeceased by her adoring husband, Stan Wilfon, her parents, Mary and Joseph Kaider, and sister Virginia Kullman.

Family was everything to Christine and she is survived by her loving children, Alison Cobb-Kubiak (Kris) and Christopher Cobb (Liz), her former husband, Allen Cobb and special brothers in law, Clyde Kullman (Karen) and Kevin Kullman.

Christine's grandchildren, Thorin and Danika Kubiak and Lily Cobb, were the lights of her life and she adored her "bonus" children and grandchildren: Brandi Hill (Jason), Brian Wilfon, Lauren Hill and (Lucia) Mikaela Wilfon. Her twin sisters, Marsha Baldwin and Michele Kaider-Korol (Todd), were her best friends. She was also a wonderful aunt to Julie, Ron, Jennifer, Joey, David and Megan.

Christine earned her RN degree from Crouse-Irving Hospital in Syracuse, NY and later pursued her passion for interior design. She had an innate sense of style, a flair for elegance, and an ability to transform the ordinary into extraordinary.

She loved antique shopping, upstate NY autumns, vacationing in The 1,000 Islands, and good chocolate. Most of all, she loved holidays, especially Christmas, the movie "It's a Wonderful Life", visiting the Tampa Theatre for "White Christmas" sing-alongs, and being surrounded by her family.

A special thank you to the phenomenal oncological and nursing staff at Inova Fair Oaks Hospital, Schar Cancer Center, and Moffitt Cancer Center. Your dedication to patient care and quality of life brought her immense comfort.

Calling hours are on August 31, 2024 from 2-4 pm at Pierce Funeral Home, Manassas VA.

A Celebration of Life will follow at her daughter Alison's home in Manassas.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital.
