Christine Kapfer

January 14, 1943 – July 3, 2025

Christine Kapfer, age 82, passed away peacefully on July 3, 2025, at her home at Heritage Village Assisted Living in Gainesville, Virginia.

Born on January 14, 1943, in Washington, D.C., Christine was the oldest daughter of the late Francis and Laura Scheuring. She was predeceased by her husband of 36 years, Edgar Kapfer; her daughter, Kimberly Macdonald; and her granddaughter, Gabrielle Sanborn.

Christine is survived by her loving daughter, Kelly Swede (Howard); her cherished grandchildren, Heather, Allison, Kayla, Laurie, Connor, and Adrielle; her brother, Raymond Scheuring Sr. (Therese); her sister, Beverly Scheuring as well as many extended family members and friends.

Christine dedicated her career to public service, retiring from the Food and Drug Administration, where she worked as a Consumer Safety Officer. She spent many happy years living in South Carolina, where she was actively involved in her community and contributed to the neighborhood newspaper. She loved sitting on her screened-in porch, watching the geese play in the pond, and taking long walks with her beloved dog, Sneak—always stopping to chat with neighbors along the way.

A creative spirit, Christine enjoyed drawing in her free time and had a lifelong love of horses.

Christine will be remembered for her resilient strength, her kind smile, and the love she had for her family. She touched many lives and will be deeply missed. in lieu of flowers the family ask that contributions in her memory be made to Pancreatic Cancer Action Network www.pancan.org.
